THANK YOU

The family of Chuck Carlson would like to thank the community for their comfort and support after Chuck's sudden passing. Our family was very blessed to have him as a husband, father and grandfather and he was very proud of his family. We would like to thank family, friends and neighbors for their prayers, cards, memorials, and other acts of kindness. Our hearts were touched by the people who stopped by our homes, his visitation and attended the funeral. We heard many kind comments on how Chuck impacted the community in a very positive way and will be missed. The family would like to also thank the Honor Guard, Faith United Methodist Church, St. Mary's Church (lunch venue), Charisma Circle (FUMC), Dr. Ruzicka, the hospital staff and EMTs at Humboldt Hospital. A special thank you to Pastor Christy Ehrle and the staff at Mason Lindhart funeral home, especially Lincoln Mason. We are amazed and very appreciative of the outpouring of support and kindness from the community.
God bless you and our country.

Thank You

Thank You

There are not enough ways to word how much the outpouring of kindnesses shown to us during the last couple weeks has helped us through this terrible time. We are truly touched. The food, visits, hugs, tears, thoughts, donations, offers of assistance, and most of all the support we feel from the WHOLE TOWN leaves us speechless. We feel the need to extend a special public thanks to Erin and Roger Bennett, Pastor Raether and Zion Lutheran Church kitchen ladies, Bruce Reimers, the MecSol workers, Lincoln Mason, Brenda Larsen and friends/mothers, Greg Thomas, Nick Schluter, Iowa Hawkeye Coaching Staff, HHS coaching staff and the entire HHS district. We are so humbled. To the classes of 2007, 2010, 2015, 2016 and friends/parents: your kindnesses shown to the Ross kids and family will never ever be forgotten. Miranda and Cory Peterson: you two are our rocks and are why we are getting through this.
