THANK YOU

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to our family, friends, and neighbors for your kindness shown at the time of Steve "Uncle Buck" Sandberg passing and for the flowers, plants, memorials, cards, visits and prayers. We are very thankful for Pastor Shonda, Congregational UCC and Bill Jorgenson of Mason-Lindhart Funeral Home, they made this time of sorrow much easier with their guidance. Thank you to the Humboldt County Memorial Hospital, EMT's, Fort Dodge ICU, Life Flight Crew, University of Iowa Hospital, The Good Samaritan Society of Algona and St. Croix Hospice. All the medical staff that were a part of his long journey home gave excellent care and touched all our hearts.

Humboldt County Cattlemen's Association

2023 Summer Grill-Out & Calf Show

The Humboldt County Cattlemen are pleased to announce our 2023 community event.

TUESDAY, JUNE 27 WE WILL HOST A GRILL-OUT AND BOTTLE/BUCKET CALF SHOW AT THE HUMBOLDT CO. FAIRGROUNDS SHOW RING.

We will be grilling delicious USA BEEF along with other sides and sliced watermelon.

Everyone can grab a seat around the show ring. We will have a few speakers give updates on the cattle industry locally, at the state level and nationally. We will follow that up with a bottle/bucket calf show for any kids that want to participate. It will be a great opportunity for kids to practice showing their calf before the county fair season and a great opportunity for everyone in the community to have a good time!

5:30-7:30pm • Grill will be hot and will serve food until we run out

6-6:30pm • We will have a few speakers give everyone in attendance updates on the cattle industry

6:30-7:30pm • Bottle/bucket calf show

WANTED: Tractors and all types of Farm Machinery. PH. 515-352-5204.

Sritharan and Zaugg named Valedictorians in Humboldt commencement

Anishka Sritharan and Emily Zaugg were named Valedictorians of the Humboldt High School graduating Class of 2021 at commencement ceremonies held Sunday afternoon, May 23, in the high school gymnasium. Salutatorian honors went to Lily Groat and Sydney Savary. Sritharan and Zaugg were awarded the Marvyl Friesth Award. The Marvyl Friesth Award originated over 10 years ago following a tragic accident in which a student passed away. Because the award is based on the high caliber of living and participation exemplified by this young woman, they initiated what has become an annual award to the top senior boy and girl. This award is based on scholarship, character, sportsmanship, and leadership. The faculty nominates by ballot, and the senior class votes for the top senior boy and girl. Their names will be added to this plaque, which is normally located in the high school cafeteria as a standard of excellence for all future Humboldt High School students to follow. Silver Cord Award recipients: Elijah Collins - 566.5 hours; Eric Witrock - 391.5 hours; Cassandra Ruzicka - 333.5 hours; Clara Bommam - 329 hours; Anishka Sritharan - 322 hours; and Tyler Pihlman - 322 hours. This year's graduating class has 102 members and 17 are in National Honor Society. Twenty students earned a 3.0-3.49 Grade Point Average during their four years at Humboldt High School. A select few, finished their high school career with a grade point average above 3.5; they include: Baer Arnold, Kalle Dethmann, Zachary Frideres, James A. Gould, Lilyan Groat, Jayda Heffer, Morgan Johnson, Leah Manz, Kylie Moore, Lauren Murray, Quinon Orr, Cassandra Ruzicka, Fletcher Sater, Sydney Savary, Kaylee Shutt, Morgan Smith, Anishka Sritharan, Emma alda Tejeda, Eric Witrock, and Emily Zaugg. It has become a tradition at Humboldt High School, for each departing senior to be recognized at graduation for their accomplishments during their four years of high school. The following departmental awards were presented: Emma alda Tejeda, Eric Witrock, and Emily Zaugg. SEE GRADUATION, 3A

Humboldt's Elle Clark takes Civic Center stage

By KENT THOMPSON

In a role she was meant to play, Humboldt's Elle Clark became "Annie" Wednesday, June 2, on the Civic Center stage in Des Moines. The award is on the level of an all-state performance in music, sports or speech. For Clark, it's like winning a Tony Award on Broadway. The relatively new honor (established in 2012) recognizes outstanding performances in musical theater. Shutt was familiar with the award, having been nominated for a Triple Threat Award for his performance as Tigger in "Fiddler on the Roof" during his senior year in high school. He invited a team of judges to observe the musical theater performances of the local school, beginning in 2019-20 with the school's fall production of "Seussical the Musical." While Humboldt's last participating school last year, Clark's role of Little Orphan Annie in this year's production won't the judges' attention as much as the audience enough to be in the role, and she that she received the honor of "Outstanding Performance in a Principal Role." Clark will be part of a come home from school select group of high school practice and couldn't wait to go to rehearsal. It was the favorite part of my day," the Humboldt sophomore said. "Annie was inside of me. People around school called me that of Little Orphan Annie. I relate to her character. I share some of the same traits as Annie. I'm spunky and they. It felt natural for me to be in the role, and I wanted to make the class proud." Clark said. "I share some of the same traits as Annie. I'm spunky and they. It felt natural for me to be in the role, and I wanted to make the class proud." Clark said.
