Thank you

The families of Dennis and Dianne Andersen would like to thank everyone for the kind words and support since their passing. A special thank you to Luke and the staff at Lauferweiler-Sievers Funeral Home in Fort Dodge for making this very difficult process a little easier. We would also like to thank Fr. Guenther for the services and the St. Mary's ladies society for the luncheons. Lastly, special thanks to Humboldt Hospital ER for the quick care they gave mom, as well as Bickford Senior Living and UnityPoint Hospice in Fort Dodge for the kind and gentle care they gave dad during his stay there.

A LETTER TO MY WIFE ON HER BIRTHDAY, JAN. 18

My Dearest LaVonne,

I remember the first time I saw you, blonde ponytail, petite and perfect, waiting tables. The prettiest girl I had ever seen. I asked if I could walk you home, and you said yes. I waited for you outside on the bench for an hour and a half. Then, there you were and I walked you home. Two blocks. Our first date.

We married and the pretty girl that I walked home became a beautiful woman. I have memories of houses, of cars, of dogs and horses, of leaving and of coming home, but always there was you. You made my life.

We grew older and retired and you were my perfect companion. I miss the small things. The sound of you in our house. Coffee. Wine and cheese. Music. Sunday Breakfast. Drives.

I love you still. Wait for me. I'll walk you home.
